Afternoon Break

Sunday, July 2 | 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Sunday Mass: Mercy and Renewal

Sunday, July 2 | 4:30 – 6:00 p.m.

Inspired and motivated by the call to missionary discipleship, the Convocation community renews its commitment to the Gospel and celebrates God’s mercy which is always the basis of every encounter with the Lord and every missionary renewal. (See EG, nos. 3, 24, and 27, and Misericordiae Vultus, no. 10.)

Principal Celebrant/Homilist: Archbishop Wilton Gregory (Archdiocese of Atlanta)

Dinner Break

Sunday, July 2 | 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Evening of Adoration and Reflection: Encountering Jesus, Healer of Wounds and Source of Mercy

Sunday, July 2 | 8:00 – 9:30 p.m.

Pausing for a moment in the fast pace of the Convocation, this session will be an opportunity to reflect on the past and present struggles within and outside the Church, including each individual's need for the Lord's mercy. As the community looks ahead and continues to seek the Lord's face, it takes time to name and pray for forgiveness and healing for the wounds and missteps along the way. As Pope Francis has urged: "Heal the wounds, heal the wounds." (See also EG, nos. 3 and 76-109.)

Bishop Introduction: Bishop Daniel Flores (Diocese of Brownsville)

Principal Celebrant: Seán Cardinal O'Malley (Archdiocese of Boston)

MONDAY – JULY 3, 2017

MONDAY DAILY THEME: WITNESS

Eucharistic Procession and Benediction: A Church That Goes Forth

Monday, July 3 | 7:30 – 9:00 a.m.

We begin the morning with a Eucharistic procession and benediction, reminding us of our witness to the world, to be "a Church that goes forth" to the peripheries of culture and society. (See EG, nos. 12-13, 46-49, 174, 262)

Procession Leader: Archbishop William Lori (Archdiocese of Baltimore)

Morning Plenary Session: Going to the Peripheries

Monday, July 3 | 9:00 – 10:30 a.m.

Who is missing from the table? As evidenced by the research, there are so many men and women on the peripheries: those disengaged from the Church, those who are in poverty and who struggle, those with disabilities, those who are hurt, angry, and uncertain. This session will look at ways to go beyond "our own comfort zone," to reach all people in need of the Gospel. (See EG, nos. 20, 23-24, 48-49, 176-258.)

Emcees: Bishop Edward Burns (Diocese of Dallas)

Julianne Donlon Stanz (Diocese of Green Bay)

Bishop Introduction: Bishop Oscar Cantú (Diocese of Las Cruces)

Keynote Presentations: Archbishop José Gomez (Archdiocese of Los Angeles)

Carl Anderson (Knights of Columbus)

Afternoon Break

Monday, July 3 | 3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Fortnight for Freedom Mass: Witness and Celebration

Monday, July 3 | 4:30 – 6:00 p.m.

On the eve of Independence Day, we take a moment to celebrate and pray for our freedom to witness, to serve, to act with justice, and to celebrate the faith that compels us to missionary discipleship, and especially to pray for all Christians around the world and those suffering from violence and persecution because of their faith. (See EG, nos. 61 and 255-258.)

Principal Celebrant/Homilist: Archbishop William Lori (Baltimore)

Dinner Break

Monday, July 3 | 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Monday, July 3 | 8:00 – 9:30 p.m.

Prayer Leaders: Joseph Cardinal Tobin C.Ss.R. (Archdiocese of Newark)
Bishop Frank Dewane (Diocese of Venice)

To end the evening and point towards the holiday, the Convocation will feature a special celebration of Catholic music and entertainment, focusing on motivating participants to engage in the work of witness and mission. (see EG, nos. 4-10, 42, 121-122, 127-129)

TUESDAY – JULY 4, 2017

MONDAY DAILY THEME: MISSION

Morning Plenary Session: Spirit-Filled Evangelizers Equipped for Excellence

Tuesday, July 4 | 8:30 – 9:00 a.m. Morning Prayer / 9:00 – 10:30 a.m. Session

This plenary will focus on helping Catholic leaders become better equipped for success in their evangelization efforts and in their work of forming missionary disciples, to truly become missionary disciples at work in the world. At the same time, the shared mission of discipleship and evangelization depends on personal prayer and on one's openness to the Holy Spirit. This session, then, will offer a reminder that ministerial excellence is only possible when one's work for the Kingdom is an expression of and nourished by one's daily reliance on the Lord. (See EG, nos. 19-49, 110-134, and 259-288.)

Emcees: Bishop Edward Burns (Diocese of Dallas)
Julianne Donlon Stanz (Diocese of Green Bay)

Bishop Introduction: Bishop Richard Malone (Diocese of Buffalo)

Capstone Presentation: Patrick Lencioni (Amazing Parish)

Closing Keynote Address: Bishop Robert Barron (Archdiocese of Los Angeles)

Mid-Morning Break

Tuesday, July 4 | 10:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Diocesan, Movement, and Organizational Goal Setting

Tuesday, July 4 | 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. (includes lunch break)

Convocation participants would break out by groups according to diocese (or by apostolic or ecclesial movement or national organization or institute) to assess what they have heard over the past four days and discuss: (1) how this will impact their local realities and experiences, (2) what defines “success” for their area or ministry and (3) how they can be and how they can inspire other spirit-filled evangelizers in the parishes, dioceses, movements, and across the country. (see Pope Francis, “Address,” November 10, 2015, Florence, Italy)

Delegations and organizations are invited to set strategic and action-oriented goals and objectives for their forthcoming work as missionary disciples.

Box lunches (included with registration fee) are available throughout this session, starting at 11:00 a.m.

Mass of Sending: Mission and Going Forth

Tuesday, July 4 | 2:00 – 3:30 p.m.

The time has come to go forth – as missionary disciples forming others to become missionary disciples, too. The Closing Mass will be an opportunity to pray for the Holy Spirit’s assistance in helping the efforts of the Convocation and of the Church in the United States to bear fruit, and to send forth participants with renewed enthusiasm and practical insights to share. A message of the Holy Father would close the Convocation. (see EG, no. 261, and also nos. 19-49 and 259-288)

Principal Celebrant/Homilist: Daniel Cardinal DiNardo (Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston)

Message from the Pope: Archbishop Christophe Pierre (Apostolic Nuncio to the United States)
(pending/tentative)
